Mt. Shiloh Homecoming Attracts Large Crowd

The annual Homecoming of the Mt. Mount Shiloh Baptist Church attracted a large crowd of members, homecomers, and friends last Sunday at both the morning and the afternoon services. The Pastor delivered the morning message and beautiful music was rendered by the Pilot Mountain Baptist Church Choir. The afternoon service began at 2:30 with the Rev. J. D. Moore, pastor of the Fifth Street Baptist Church as the guest speaker. Music was rendered by the combined choirs of Galilee and Promise Land Churches. Dinner was served to all by the Ladies of the church. The offering for the day was very good. Several homecomers and friends expressed joy and thanksgiving to God for the privelege of attending another homecoming. The revival began on Monday evening at 7:30 P.M.with the Rev. J. W. Paige as the guest speaker for the week. Music for Monday was rendered by the Promise Land and Galilee Choirs.

MRS. GARY DONALD PETERS
the former Miss Tamara Derelys Goolsby

Wed In Double Ring Ceremony

The marriage of Miss Tamara Derelys Goolsby to Mr. Gary Donald Peters took place at 8 o'clock Saturday night, July 20 at Gladstone Memorial Baptist Church in Gladstone.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Phyllis W. Goolsby of Gladstone and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Edward Peters of Gladstone.

The Rev. J. N. Williams of Gladstone officiated at the double ring ceremony assisted by the Rev. Randolph Campbell of Amherst.

Soloist Doug Ballagh was accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Doug Ballagh, who provided a program of nuptial music preceding the ceremony.

The bride wore a gown of Chantilly lace and bouquet taffeta fashioned with a portrait neckline embroidered in seed pearls and sequins. The full skirt of taffeta, appliqued with lace motifs, was paneled with lace in front and back and formed a chapel train. Her circular veil of illusion fell from a crown of matching lace and seed pearls.

The bride carried a cascade of white orchids and pink roses accented with pink astors.

Mr. Barbara Huff of South Boston was maid of honor. She wore a floor length pink dotted swiss dress with V-neck and short cape sleeves. Miss Huff carried a wicker umbrella of assorted flowers accented with pink streamers.

Junior bridesmaid was Miss Courtney Banton of Richmond, cousin of the bride. She wore a pink voile dress similar in style to that of the maid of honor. She also carried a wicker umbrella of assorted flowers accented with pink streamers.

Flower girl was Miss Kendra Peters of Arlington, niece of the groom; and Miss Stephanie Paige Banton of Richmond, cousin of the bride, was ring bearer. They were dressed in pink dotted Swiss floor length dresses with short puffed sleeves and a Peter Pan collar. Miss Peters carried a white basket with pink ribbon streamers containing pink rose petals.

The bride's mother wore a coral print sheath with matching jacket, complemented by a white orchid presented to her by the bride.

The groom's mother wore a v-neck, empire waist mint green floor length gown with wing chiffon sleeves, complemented by a white orchid corsage that was presented to her by the groom.

Mr. George Edward Peters of Gladstone was his son's best man. Ushers were Eddy Peters of Falls Church, brother of the groom; and Jeff Massie of Grafton, cousin of the bride.

Mrs. Charles R. Brown of Gladstone was Mistress of Ceremonies. Miss Diane Massie of Grafton was at the guest book.

Following the ceremony the bride's mother entertained with a reception in her home. Serving the cake was Mrs. Charles W. Brown of Virginia Beach, Va. and at the punch bowl was Mrs. Floyd Massie of Grafton, Va. Presiding at the bride's table was Mrs. Julian W. Banton of Richmond, Va.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. George Inabinet of New Ellen, S.C., Mrs. Floyd of New Ellenton, S.C., Mrs. Floyd Massie & children of Grafton, Va., Mrs. Minnie Greaver, Ms. Lucy Greaver & Mrs. Adele Fowler of Richmond, Mr. & Mrs. Julian W. Banton & children & Mr. and Mrs. Ernest W. Tyree, also of Darst and daughter, Harriett of Lynchburg.

After a southern wedding trip the couple will reside in Gladstone.

Mr. John H. Spiggle is a patient in Lynchburg General Hospital where he is receiving treatment.

MRS. RICHARD EDWIN FORE, III
the former Miss Mary Lou Cavanaugh

Wed In Afternoon Ceremony

The marriage of Miss Mary Lane Cavanaugh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Richard Cavanaugh of Franklin Lakes, New Jersey, to Richard Edwin Fore, III, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Edwin Fore, Jr., of Pamplin, Virginia, took place July 17 at 3:30 in the afternoon at St. Elizabeth's Roman Catholic Church in Wycoff, New Jersey.

Father Edmund DeStephano, assisted by Reverend Robert J. Duncan of the Grace Methodist Church in Wycoff, New Jersey, performed the double-ring ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an empire gown of white quiana, trimmed with a cathedral train and Venice lace. Her veil of illusion was attached to a cap of Venice lace and seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white roses, daisies, and baby's breath.

Mrs. Ann Doorly of Brant Beach, New Jersey, sister of the bride, was the Matron of Honor. The bridesmaids were Miss Patricia Bickert of Wycoff, New Jersey; the groom's sister, Miss Jacqueline Fore of Pamplin, Virginia; Miss Ann Ranallo and Miss Elizabeth Reed of Franklin Lakes, New Jersey.

Geoffrey Schwartz, cousin of the groom, served as best man. The ushers were David Cavanaugh, brother of the bride, of Franklin Lakes, New Jersey; Stephen Fore, brother of the groom; Randy Williams of Pamplin, Virginia, and Dean Paulette of Evergreen, Virginia.

A reception, immediately following the ceremony, was held at the home of the bride. The couple will reside in Valdosta, Georgia.

MRS. RICHARD CLARK LEWIS, JR.
the former Miss Linda Kay Sullivan

Wed In Evening Ceremony

The marriage of Miss Linda Kay Sullivan to Mr. Richard Clark Lewis, Jr. was an occasion of Saturday evening, August 7, at 7:30 o'clock in Trinity United Methodist Church at Concord.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fleming W. Drinkard of Appomattox and the late Mr. Robert J. Sullivan. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Clark Lewis of Appomattox.

The Rev. Thomas E. Jackson, former pastor of the church and now pastor of Grace United Methodist Church in Roanoke, officiated at the double ring ceremony. A program of nuptial music was provided by Mrs. Mack D. Creasy, organist, and Miss Jackie Cobbs, vocalist. The music included "I Love You Truly" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride was escorted by her father and given in marriage by her parents. She wore a traditional wedding gown of white poly sheer with illusion scooped neckline and full long sleeves with Venice lace appliqued on the cuffs. Venice lace was also appliqued on the fitted formal Czarine bodice seams, topped shoulders and defined the fitted back. The slightly raised waist was accented with Venise lace circles and the full skirt merged into an attached semi-Cathedral train. The hemline and train were edged with an appliqued band of Venise fleurettes. She wore a finger tip veil trimmed with Venise lace and attached to a camelot headpiece. Her bouquet was a mixture of pink roses, baby's breath and stephanotis.

Mrs. Charles W. Prettyman, sister of the bride, of Kensington, Md., was matron of honor. She wore a violet, floor length, sleeveless gown of chiffon over taffeta, with a roll collar and chiffon cape. The bridesmaids were Mrs. R. Warren Drinkard, sister-in-law of the bride and Miss Nancy Stratton, cousin of the bridegroom, both of Appomattox, Mrs. Kenneth L. Wright, cousin of the bride, of Lynchburg, and Miss Christine K. Prettyman, niece of the bride, of Kensington, Md., was junior bridesmaid.

Mr. Lewis as his son's best man and ushers were David R. Drinkard and R. Warren Drinkard, brothers of the bride, Edward T. Stratton, cousin of the bridegroom, all of Appomattox, and T. Scott Drinkard, cousin of the bride, of Appomattox, was junior usher.

Following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Drinkard, parents of the bride, entertained with a reception in the church fellowship hall. Mrs. Kenneth E. Coleman, of Appomattox, served as mistress of ceremonies and Miss Penny Sue Martin, of Appomattox, attended the register.

The bride is a graduate of Appomattox County High School and Central Virginia Community College and is employed by the Virginia Baptist Hospital in Lynchburg.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Appomattox County High School and is self-employed.

After a wedding trip to Florida the couple will live at Route 3, Appomattox.
